•

-
-
-
-
-
-

Core Competencies of Interprofessional Collaborative Practice

Program Outcome 5:
Program Outcome 6:

Systema t c Evalua t on

course

facilitator

Core competencies for interprofessional collaborative practice:

Dec

Stoc
101
Gall
Attn

Subj

Dear

I am
deve

Have
foste
align
The
recru
we p

Our
rotat
rapid
over

The
unde
grad
envi

In co
forw

Plea
matt

Than

Since

arely,

your co itment to

L. Be Presid

Human sources

SH
HORE

Univ
King
y, NJ 0
s L. Ga

Lu 023

Lettar

Dr

Garci

Far y
ris Dri , F132
5
a, PhD, Tenured Assi

of S

Support for he Devel

ing on ment of

a half of Shore Medica Laboratory Science P

d closely with Stock
ied professionals in t
with our commitment
able, highly trained T our Laboratory openi
ontinue over the next

nter is eager to contri vships and expert gue
ng, and e believe th
of healthcare in our c

we hav ad concern
of the s s and know
this pr am will be

Shore f endorses
aborati lly losely wit

to con me at 609

ce School of Health Scie ence Pr of d work ogram
e Program difficu force.
etiring t to
, which

stic support for the prop prof clinical tion. enh ssionals is ance the

ives, we recognize the ir nent of a Laboratory Sci ive ation and ensuring a skille fid veral years has made it very al l ent that e a result of Technologists aboratory ram through potential partne s in n. We look alified Laboratory Science p itiative.

help address this need and nce

in this

gram reflects a comprehens care landscape. We are co enges of the dynamic medic ory Science Program at Stoc success and excellence of th

rther information or assistar