the importance of internal controls and compliance with regulatory requirements. Trustee Ciccone ended his report by stating that the committee also reviewed its role in ensuring financial integrity and accountability within the university.

Committee Chair Trustee Lozano discussed the updates provided to the committee by Mr. Donald Hudson, Senior Vice President for Facilities and Operations. Information was shared about the library renovation project, the Atlantic City Campus Strategic Planning efforts and Deferred Maintenance.

The design phase of the library renovation project is complete. Relocation of the resources will begin around May 13th. Information will be shared on the library website regarding where some of those resources will be temporarily housed during the renovation.

A summary was provided on the work of the AC Task Force and Strategic Working Group, focusing on evaluating and resetting the direction for the Atlantic City campus. Discussions on potential plans for housing and dining facilities to support the growing student population were had and a draft report outlining the detailed findings and recommendations from the feasibility study will be prepared in June.

The committee was provided with a deep dive into specific deferred maintenance projects, including updates on HVAC system upgrades, roof replacements, and plumbing im4 0 Td[(gi)2 (hous)-2 (i)2.0.0022g(t)-6.6 (l)2.6 t as President. Trustee Hanselmann stated how beneficial the retreat was in helping trustees hone their skills so they can be better prepared to address their fiduciary responsibilities.

She concluded her report by welcoming new Trustee, Dr. Mukesh Roy and thanked him for his positive contributions at the Trustee retreat as well.

President Bertolino welcomed faculty, staff, and community members to the meeting and wished everyone a happy Summer. He stated that he would offer a full President's Report at the July meeting but wanted to recognize the Board's diligent work over the past year.

He acknowledged the one-year anniversary of his and Executive Vice President and Chief of Staff, Dr. Sass's tenure at Stockton, noting the Board's impact and support during this period. He highlighted some of the challenges faced in higher education over the past year, including global turmoil, enrollment, and the FASFA.

President Bertolino once again expressed gratitude to the Board for their determination, commitment, and hard work.

He concluded his remarks by welcoming Dr. Roy to the Board detailing his background in Public Health, Community Service and Entrepreneurship. Dr. Roy most recently served on Stockton's Foundation Board of Directors and on the Executive Board of the
