of college will be able to complete the dual degree in five years. All others, including transfer students will take longer.

Why is there a need to expedite? Are

Is it possible to complete this program without the use of summer term required courses? A way to do so should, if at all possible, be presented as a curricular option even if it means students will need to take 20 undergraduate credits in some semesters.

No, it is not possible to complete that dual program or the MBA (HAL) program without taking some summer courses. Some MHAL courses are only offered during the summer.
