1. Registered sellers who accept fully completed exemption certificates within 90 days subsequent to the date of sale are relieved of liability for the collection and payment of sales tax on the transactions covered by the exemption certificate. The following information is required from the seller in order for the exemption certificate to be validly completed:

- Type of business;
- Reasons(s) for exemption;

• Name and address of the purchaser(s) including the name and address of the purchaser.

The seller's name and address are not required and are optional when completing an exemption certificate. A seller that enters data from an electronic record is not required to retain the exemption certificate even if the purchaser has purchased the tax.

2. Retention of Certificates - Certificates must be retained by the seller for a period of not less than four years from the date of the last sale covered by the certificate. Certificates must be in the physical possession of the seller and available for inspection.
