That 23% for multiple pension dipper DeWeese will go even lower once people realize he has been scamming the system for almost 23 years.

Oh, Van Drew Staffer, when will you learn. If you like this poll, then your guy has slipped 14 points since the last one. Not a good trend. If you agree with Nelson HGH Albano, then this poll is crap. Jefferson will no doubt slip further when voters learn of his four pension jobs and his dual office holding.

DeWeese will be exposed for his shameless "retirement" on the last possible day that allowed him to collect a lucrative pension without ever having a fulltime government job.

He "beat the clock" with a December 31 retirement.

He is a poster boy of why pension reform was needed.

What four pension jobs? What dual office holding?

This poll is false
