Redistricted and written off for roadkill in some insider circles, Assemblyman Dominick DiCicco has a fighting chance in LD3, according to today's Richard Stockton College/Zogby Poll.

Once again, the State GOP is caught like deer in the headlights. Gloucester is more ripe for Republican pick ups than anywhere else in the State. With a little effort and cash, earlier on in the cycle, not only would Riley be toast already but Moriarty would be sweating heavy again and that nonsense, fluff candidate Mascarra would have never even gotten out of the starting gates. DiCicco could have had allies this round instead of being what the Dems consider a fluke one-termer.
