

Linda Greenstein (D-14) and Republican challenger Hamilton School Board member Richard Kanka. Kanka's daughter, Megan, is the namesake for Megan's Law. Greenstein won a special election last year by defeating Tom Goodwin to fill the seat of former Republican state Senator Bill Baroni. The district under Baroni and beforehand was a popular battleground for Republicans and were quietly upset at target for their campaign strategy despite the tough chal

the causes and their financial support for her campaign background... influential... area... was related... assistance... Christie... under the... and...

was waging... Republican... Due to... one. Highlighted by the addition... Democratic... of the more adamant supporters of unions and their rights

During the... pensions. The Bergen County district was seen as a raising funds and campaign strategies that much more... important as... and... down in... both... connections... and the... vote in... much more... in While... reasons...

Partner Links

- AEG Worldwide
- Foundation for a Better Life
- NowPublic.com
- Walden Media