

Business in brief

Posted: Sunday, November 3, 2013 12:01 am

Stockton plans forum on health care reform

A free Affordable Care Act Forum will be held at 4:30 p.m. Nov. 12 in the Campus Center at Richard Stockton College in Galloway Township.

Sponsored by Stockton's William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy and the School of Health Sciences, the forum will include explanations of the Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, its impact upon individuals and small businesses, a question-and-answer session and an opportunity to learn about enrollment from experts.

Speakers will include: state Sen. Jim Whelan, D-2nd; Steven Blumberg, senior vice president and executive director of AtlantiCare Health Solutions; and Justine Ceserano, New Jersey state director for Enroll America.

Registration is requested by email to acaforum@stockton.edu. For more information visit www.stockton.edu/ACAforum.

Somers Point group leadership breakfast

Business owners are encouraged to bring along their valued staff members with leadership potential to the next meeting of the Somers Point Business Association.

Lewis Leitner, dean of the School of Graduate and Continuing Studies at Richard Stockton College, will speak to the association's monthly breakfast meeting on Nov. 13 about cultivating leadership among employees.

The presentation will be at 8 a.m. at Greate Bay County Club, 901 Mays Landing Road, in Somers Point. The cost is $10.

More information at www.somerspointba.org or call 609-920-7004.

Press publisher at Galloway group

The new publisher of The Press of Atlantic City, Mark Blum, will discuss the direction for the newspaper since its acquisition by BH Media at the Nov. 14 meeting of the Galloway Township Business Association.

The event will start at 8:30 a.m. at the Star Diner, 245 W. White Horse Pike, Galloway.