

Hughes Center Poll: Reducing Crime Top Priority for Tourism District

Voters Remain Unsure Whether or Not the Tourism District Will Help

For Immediate Release
Monday, May 16, 2011

Contact: Sharon Schulman, Exec Director, William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy
Sharon.Schulman@stockton.edu (609) 626-3541, (C) 856

nd Legislative District believe that reducing crime should be the top priority of the new Atlantic City Tourism District, according to a Stockton-Zogby poll*. An almost identical amount has a wait -and-see attitude on whether or not the District will improve Atlantic City.

The poll of 400 likely voters was commissioned by the William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy and run from May 4-7 and has a margin of error of $\pm 5\%$.

65% of the respondents think very or somewhat favorably of President Obama.

"However, if an election for president was held today and Gov. Christie was the other

Legislative District Results – Page 2

1st LD Senate Race

Candidate	%
Jeff Van Drew	