

LIGHTs On – Summer 2022

Alumni Interview Transcript

Light On, 2

Interviewed by Sarah Grady, Editor-in-Chief

Sarah Grady (SG): Hi, my name is Sarah Grady, and I'm the Editor-in-Chief of Light On. I'm reaching out to you because you were a part of the Southern Illinois University Carbondale community during your time here. I'd love to hear about your experiences and how you've grown since then. Could you share a bit about your time at SIUC?

Caitlin Lee (CL): Hi, my name is Caitlin Lee. I'm currently a graduate student at Southern Illinois University Carbondale. I've been here since 2019, and I'm really enjoying my time here. I've met some great people and learned a lot. I'm looking forward to continuing my education and growing as a professional.

SG: That's great to hear. How do you think your time at SIUC has prepared you for your current role? CL: I think my time at SIUC has prepared me in many ways. I've learned how to work in a team, how to communicate effectively, and how to manage my time. I've also gained a lot of experience in my field, which has helped me in my current role.

SG: It sounds like you've gained a lot of valuable skills. How do you think your time at SIUC has influenced your career path? CL: My time at SIUC has influenced my career path in many ways. I've discovered my passion for my field, and I've gained a lot of experience in my field. I've also learned how to work in a team, which is a valuable skill in any industry.

SG: That's great to hear. How do you think your time at SIUC has influenced your personal life? CL: My time at SIUC has influenced my personal life in many ways. I've met some great friends, and I've learned a lot about myself. I've also learned how to manage my time, which has helped me in my personal life.

CL: It's been a great experience. I've learned a lot about myself and my field. I've also met some great friends and learned a lot about my community. I'm looking forward to continuing my education and growing as a professional. So, my time at SIUC has been a great experience. I've learned a lot about myself and my field. I've also met some great friends and learned a lot about my community. I'm looking forward to continuing my education and growing as a professional.

SG: Thank you for sharing your experiences. It's been a pleasure talking to you.

