

STOCKTON COLLEGE

THE RICHARD STOCKTON COLLEGE OF NEW JERSEY

For Immediate Release

Thursday, April 08, 2010

Contact: Tim Kelly
Office of Public Relations
Galloway Township, NJ 08240
Tim.Kelly@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4950

Galloway Township, NJ- Her Excellency Houda Ezra Nonoo, the Ambassador of the Kingdom of Bahrain to the United States, will be the featured speaker for a William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy Lecture Series event later this month at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey.

Nonoo, the first-ever Jewish Ambassador of an Arab country and the first female Ambassador to the United States in her nation's history, will headline "The Changing Role of Women in Bahrain" to take place 6 p.m. Tuesday, April 27 in the Elizabeth Alton Auditorium (A-Wing) of the Galloway Twp. campus.

"This promises to be a fascinating lecture," said Sharon Schulman, Executive Director of the William J. Hughes Center. "Her Excellency will be providing an insider's perspective on the

Hughes Center Lecture Series/page 2

The William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy is a leader for southern New Jersey in the discussion of key issues for the region and state. In addition to its Lecture Series, which has featured Governor Chris Christie (in his previous role as U.S. Attorney), former Governor Brendan Byrne, New Jersey Attorney General Anne Milgram, William Castner, the Chief Counsel to former Governor Jon Corzine, and political commentator Roger Stone, the Hughes Center has produced widely quoted public opinion polls, election polls and business forecasts. It serves as an impartial source of civic engagement, research and commentary on many important issues of the day.

“We strive to get people talking about important issues that impact our region, nation and state,” Schulman said. “This event promises to follow in that tradition.”

#