Morgen (Tomorrow)

Jennifer Casey Cabot, soprano

Franz Schubert—Symphony No. 5

This rich program features Samuel Barber's masterpiece depicting American childhood, "Knoxville: Summer of 1915," set to text by American novelist James Agee. Ravel's exquisite "Tombeau de Couperin," portraying the same era, pays homage to friends lost in World War I. These two works act as the bookends of life. After intermission, romance is in the air with intoxicating love songs by Richard Strauss and Schubert's delicious Fifth Symphony.
