

Stockton Professors Author Book on Life in the Atlantic City Casino Industry

Dr. Ellen Mutari, Dr. Deborah Figart to Hold Book Signing Feb. 20

For Immediate Release; with links to images at end

Monday, February 2, 2015

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Maryjane.Briant@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Galloway Township, NJ - A new book by two professors from The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey explores life stories of individual casino workers in Atlantic City in the context of the history of the city and the now-global gaming industry.

Just O6(i)2.(l8T]6(o74 j f)-17.46.6( t)p 104(e)72 0 Td ( )Tj nC e)c1r2 T.761 -i-2(t)-(t)-6j nC e0.-j(s)-2(b)09

Education and Economics, is being published this available as an e-book or in cloth cover. The book comes out in a little over a year's time.

held at Stockton on Friday, Feb. 20 at the Campus from 4-6 p.m. Stockton is located about 15 miles from at workers all over can relate to: an industry that being transformed by competitive pressures, causing

-continued from page 2-

Dr. Mutari is an expert on labor market and employment policies; gender, race-ethnicity, and class; economic history and the contemporary political economy.

She is coauthor of