Galloway Township, NJ- The Stockton Chamber Players will bring together the Bay-Atlantic Symphony String Quartet and the Stockton College Chamber Orchestra for a free concert on Thursday, Dec. 4, 2014 at 7:30 p.m. in the Alton Auditorium, on the college's main Galloway campus.

The Stockton Chamber Players, which were revived earlier this year, originally existed from 1975 to 1997 as part of the Stockton Performing Arts program and featured performances by Stockton music faculty in concerts of chamber music.

Under the leadership of Dr. Christopher DiSanto, associate professor of Music and coordinator of the Classical Music Studies program, the Stockton Chamber Players are bringing together the Bay-Atlantic Symphony String Quartet and the Stockton College Chamber Orchestra to
