Galloway Township, NJ- The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey's Choral Music Program springs into action at the end of April, presenting four different choral concerts. The Stockton College Chorus, the Stockton Select Chorale Ensemble, the Vocal Jazz Ensemble, and the Stockton Oratorio Society will take the stage to deliver breathtaking performances, covering a vast array of musical genres. Performances are set for April 27-29 and May 3.

Tickets are $10 for general admission and $8 for students and seniors with ID. Ticket orders can be made online at www.stocktonpac.org or by calling the Box Office at 609-652-9000. The Stockton Box Office is open Monday-Friday from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. and 90 minutes before each performance.

On April 27, 2014, the College Chorus tells you, "It's the Sixties, Come On and Rock My World," featuring the music of Abba, Ray Charles, Hank Ballard, Brian Wilson, Paul Simon, James Brown, Otis Redding, David Thomas, John Lennon, Paul McCartney and Felix Cavaliere. The College Chorus will transport you back in time with these classic hits. The performance will take place in the Stockton Performing Arts Center at 7:30 p.m.

On April 28, 2014, the Stockton Select Chorale Ensemble will "Let All My Life Be Music," as they perform a variety of classical works. The audience will enjoy the works of Randall Thompson, Moses Hogan, Ivo Antogini and Hugh Roberton as the ensemble displays their magnificent voices. The performance will take place in Stockton's Campus Center Theatre at 7:30 pm.

On April 29, 2014, the Vocal Jazz Ensemble takes the stage to present an evening of "Moonlit Jazz." The ensemble will perform works by Earth Wind, and Fire, Jack Segal, and Bobby Troup
