GALLOWAY TWP., NJ – The Sixth Annual Stockton College Golf Classic is set to take place Tuesday, September 23, 2008 at Hidden Creek Golf Club in Egg Harbor Twp., one of Golfweek magazine's "Top 100 Modern Golf Courses in the United States" designed by Bill Coore and Ben Crenshaw.

Co-Chairpersons for the event are Tony Coppola, Historic Towne of Smithville; and Robin Stoloff, of NBC 40 TV. Philadelphia Flyers' Hall of Famer and current radio analyst Brian Propp will participate and golfers will have the opportunity to take part in a "Beat the Propp" contest.

The Golf Classic raised in excess of $100,000 last year, a 25 percent increase over 2006. The event proved to be so successful two separate sessions are planned this year: an 8:30 a.m. shotgun start and a 1:30 afternoon shotgun. A light breakfast and registration precede the early session, with a noon lunch prior to the afternoon shotgun start. There will be a dinner reception at 6 p.m. Proceeds benefit the Stockton College Foundation Scholarship Fund.

The Second Annual Corona Cup will be awarded with additional prizes for low gross, and top low net foursomes in the scramble/shotgun start format event. There will also be individual contest prizes for men and women including closest to the pin, longest drive and a putting contest.

Cost is $250 per person, for a morning teetime, $900 per foursome. Afternoon tee times are $275 per person, $1,000 per foursome. Additional sponsorship opportunities are available.

The presenting sponsor for the outing is Wachovia. Additional sponsors include: Atlantic Auto Group, Carrabba's Italian Grill, Historic Towne of Smithville, Kramer Beverage Company, NBC 40, Ole Hansen & Sons, Shore Memorial and many others.
