Galloway Township, NJ- Shana Fogarty, a 2005 graduate of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, never dreamed that her grandmother's story would be performed on stage. Pamela Hendrick, a Stockton Professor of Theater, adapted Shana's Holocaust and Genocide Studies interview project for the stage. The result was "A Comb and a Prayer Book: A Survivor's Story." The survivor is Elizabeth Blum Goldstein, Shana's grandmother.

Stockton's School of Arts and Humanities and the Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center recently announced the completion of the Stockton College Theater program's tour of "A Comb and a Prayer Book: A Survivor's Story." The final performance took place on January 12, 2010 at the Indiana University of Pennsylvania during the regional theater festival sponsored by the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KCACTF). The KCACTF is a national theater program involving 18,000 students from colleges and universities nationwide. "A Comb and a Prayer Book: A Survivor's Story" was one of nine plays to be recognized by the KCACTF's regional festival.
