

Stockton's Day of Scholarship to Showcase Faculty, Staff and Student Research Projects

Presentations, Panel Discussions and Poster Session on March 24 & 25

For Immediate Release

Friday, March 13, 2015

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Maryjane.Briant@Stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Galloway Township, NJ - The 15th Annual Day of Scholarship has grown into a two-day showcase of distinctive research projects and collaborations between students, faculty and staff from all fields of study at Stockton University. ~~It begins at 10 a.m.~~
~~on March 24~~ during the two-day event.

Stockton invites community partners and the general public to join for President Herman J. Saatkamp's opening remarks, as well as refreshments, on Tuesday, March 24 at 10 a.m. Light snacks will be served for Tuesday afternoon sessions on community engagement projects, the Holocaust, the learning-abroad experience, triggers and content of homicidal fantasies, brain connectivity, Affirmative Action and racial micro-aggressions in the workplace, and the relationship between corruption and government involvement in economic activity.

Bringing together a diverse pool of talent, the event provides an overview of the projects that took place during the past year including grant-funded projects, internally funded projects, research endeavors, professional development, sabbaticals, study tours and academic achievements.

There are 30-minute presentations as well as 60-minute panel discussions that give multiple perspectives on various topics. Posters will be on display all day both days in the Board of

-more-

-continued from page 1-

Trustees room, with presenters available to answer questions from 10:15-10:30 a.m. on Tuesday and 10:45-11 a.m. on Wednesday.

Other research topics include