

STOCKTON COLLEGE

THE RICHARD STOCKTON COLLEGE OF NEW JERSEY

Environmental Studies Seminars Offered at Richard Stockton College

China's Environment, Hydropower, NJ Bear Management Among the Topics

For Immediate Release

Monday, October 18, 2010

Contact: Tim Kelly
Susan Allen
Office of Public Relations
Galloway Township, NJ 08240
Tim.Kelly@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4950

Galloway Township, NJ - The Environmental Studies Program at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey is presenting a series of seminars covering a broad range of topics that pertain to wildlife, alternative energy and the environment.

The seminars, which are free and open to the public, are offered on Monday afternoons, 3:35 to 5:25 p.m., in the Arts and Sciences Building, room 108.

Below is a schedule of the seminars.

Date	Speaker	Topic
Mon., Oct. 25	Dr. Weihong Fan and Dr. Raymond Mueller	China's Environment
	Dr. Daniel Duran	Tiger Beetle Genetics, Geography and Conservation
Mon., Dec. 6	Dr. Daniel Moscovici	Conflict Over Hydropower in Costa Rica

The following presenters are professors at Stockton College: Dr. Weihong Fan is an associate professor of environmental studies, Dr. Raymond Mueller is a professor of environmental studies and Dr. Daniel Moscovici is an assistant professor of environmental science and geology. Dr. Daniel Duran is a Stockton biology graduate and a recent doctoral graduate of Vanderbilt University. Kelcey Burgess is a principal biologist for the NJ Division of Fish and Wildlife.

#