

Fannie Lou Hamer Human and Civil Rights Symposium

Donna Murch, Rutgers Professor and Author, Is Keynote Speaker

For Immediate Release

Thursday, September 29, 2016

CONTACT: Margaret
Nardella, M.Ed., R.Ed.
Gabry, N.J. 08205
Margaret@stn.edu
(609) 652-4593
mgnardella@stn.edu

Gabry, N.J. - Stockton University will host its annual Fannie Lou Hamer Human and Civil Rights Symposium on Monday, October 10 at 2:30 p.m. with a keynote speech by Donna Murch, an associate professor of History at Rutgers University, and a panel discussion on the theme, "Civil Rights Then and Now: Miles to Go Before We Sleep."

Fannie Lou Hamer was a legendary figure in the civil rights movement who helped to organize the

-continued from page 1 -

Christina Jackson, assistant professor of Sociology, will moderate a discussion on civil rights