

Richard Stockton College Golf Classic Raises Nearly $120,000

Winning Team from Cooper Levenson and T.D. Wealth Management

For Immediate Release ; with photo attached, caption below

Tuesday, October 07, 2014

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Maryjane.Briant @stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Galloway Township, NJ - Some 185 golfers and donors helped raise nearly $120,000 at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey's Annual Golf Classic at Stockton Seaview Hotel & Golf Club on Sept. 30.

The Stockton Golf Classic was played on the Bay and Pines courses at historic Stockton Seaview. The net proceeds of the event benefit students.

"Our focus is on supporting Stockton students, and the Golf Classic provides an opportunity for the community to engage with us in our effort. We received an outpouring of support from our sponsors and the community, and we are truly grateful," said Dr. Phyllis Forthofer, the college's president. "This year's turnout was one of the largest ever."

LPGA Professional Laura Diaz and her coach and father, 8.8.002A 2(r)-6(o)10.6(f)-6. [(Lau)1Ronall

-continued from page 1 -

The winning team from Cooper Levenson and T.D. Wealth Management was comprised of Michael Salad of Linwood, Jack Hall of Moorestown, Adam Bracy of Mount Laurel and John Fries of Moorestown.

Carol Giordano of Moorestown, Tracy Santoro of Margate City, Bonnie Spector of Longport and Dotsie Tuscano of Brigantine were on the top women's team.

Charles Weeks of Barrister Wealth Management and an assistant professor of Business Studies at Stockton, was the golf committee chair.