Galloway Township, NJ -The Distinctively Stockton Hammonton Proud Scholarship Campaign has raised $34,100 in gifts and pledges in its first quarter, over 30 percent of the way to establishing a $100,000 scholarship fund for students who attend high school in Hammonton.

“The generosity and hometown pride of Hammonton residents is striking,” said President Herman Saatkamp of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. “From Charles and Lynn Kramer’s Leadership gift that helped to open the Commitments of at least $1,000 a year, for a minimum of 5 years, are eligible for recognition on the remaining pillars throughout the building. Only a limited number of pillars are available at each giving level.

Once the initial $100,000 goal is met, the endowed scholarship will provide an annual award of approximately $4,000, which will continue in perpetuity.

To display its commitment to Hammonton, and to encourage continued private support, Stockton would use institutional scholarship funds to match those produced by the fund to provide $8,000 a year for Hammonton
