

Stockton to Host Program on Heroin Epidemic Presented by Prosecutor's Office in Woodbine

For Immediate Release

Monday, October 13, 2014

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Maryjane.Briant @stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Galloway Township, NJ - Adults, parents and youngsters (sixth grade and older) are invited to attend a special presentation titled, "Pills to Heroin," designed to educate the public about the current heroin epidemic that is affecting communities across the country – including Cape May County.

The Southern Regional Institute & Educational Technology Training Center (SRI&ETTC) in the School of Education at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey is hosting the program presented by the Cape May County Prosecutor's Office. The event will take place at the college's instructional site at the Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine Heritage at 610 Washington Ave. in Woodbine, NJ on Oct. 17, 2014 from 5-8 p.m.

The informational program will feature videos, an oral presentation and a question-and-answer session.

#