

Bricklayers & Allied Crafts of N.J. Pledges
$25,000 to William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy Endowment at Stockton

For Immediate Release; with photo on flickr

-continued from page 1-

The trades union also contracted with the Hughes Center to complete two projects utilizing Stockton faculty and staff, including research on the “underground economy” earlier this year. A 2008 project included developing an informational pamphlet on the historical and economic impacts of trades unions in southern New Jersey.

The pledge will be fulfilled in $5,000 yearly installments over five years, beginning this month.

For more information about Stockton University’s William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy, visit Stockton.edu/hughescenter.

#