

Stockton College Celebrates International Education Week with Events

UN Speaker, Fair Trade Show, Films, Salsa Dance Among Nov. 17-21

Monday, Nov. 18

Japanese Kimono Presentation: Authentic Japanese kimonos will be on display. F-Wing Atrium, 9-5 p.m.

“Small Island”: Screening of movie about the diaspora of Jamaican immigrants in England during and after World War II. A film discussion will follow the screening. Main campus B-001, 12 p.m.

“Les Visiteurs”: Screening of French comedy about a medieval nobleman and his squire who are accidentally transported to contemporary times by a senile sorcerer. Main campus F-121, 3:25-5:25 p.m.

Amazing China: This show, performed by members of the Confucius Institute of Chinese Opera at Binghamton University - State University of New York, will feature nine performances showcasing different elements of Chinese drama such as acrobatics, martial arts, instrumental music, Chinese opera and vocals. Campus Center Theatre, 4:30-6:30 p.m.

Origami Mathematics Lessons Workshop: Origami is presented as an education tool, used to teach students about the culture and history of origami and to showcase the art of paper folding as a method to teach mathematical concepts. Campus Center Meeting Room 5, 5-6 p.m.

Tuesday, Nov. 19

Poster Fair and GeoDome: The GeoDome, an immersive visualization dome with the entire interior surface acting as a 3-D projection screen, will be used to give a visual presentation of enlightening global knowledge applicable to all areas of study. C/D Atrium, 9-5 p.m.

United Nations Guest Speaker: Claudia Diaz, a human rights officer with the United Nations, will give a presentation about the prevention of genocide. Prior to her current position, she spent 10 years working with the United Nations in different conflict and post-conflict countries, such as Guatemala, Nepal, Sudan (Darfur), Timor-Leste and Venezuela. Campus Center Theatre, 1c [1Tj 0(>ffi) tied Na

Clinical Experiences in China and Haiti Panel Discussion: This panel discussion will examine the evolution of the opportunities, learning outcomes and results from inter-professional education research in both countries through a mixed-methods approach, followed with a discussion on the volunteer international clinical opportunities. Main campus F-202, 6-8 p.m.

Wednesday, Nov. 20

Service-Learning in Uganda Symposium: Speakers will discuss their experiences doing volunteer work in a developing nation and share their observations and experiences. Main