arrangements in a contemporary big band style. The ensemble, originally formed in 1978, plays jazz festivals and clubs in and around the tri-state area. With the release of two CDs, the band has received acclaim both nationally and abroad. Their music has been played on over 100 jazz radio stations throughout the United States, Great Britain and

“On behalf of Jim and the guys, it is a great honor to be selected as the first Jazz Orchestra-in-Residence at Stockton. We are very excited about our upcoming performance with Ed Vezinho, band leader and an adjunct instructor. “Stockton has wonderful facilities and first rate equipment being put at our disposal. We hope to inspire listeners’ musical dreams by taking advantage of the fantastic opportunities being offered by the Stockton music program.”

The evening’s concert, “The Great American Songbook,” will feature original and re-arranged songs with arrangements by Vezinho.

General admission is $15, or $10 for senior citizens and $8 for students. The Campus Center Theatre is located on the Galloway campus, just off Jimmie Leeds Road, at the intersection of Farris Drive. For patrons with special needs, the Campus Center Theatre offers accessible seating, listening assistive devices, and large type programs.

Tickets may be purchased in person, for cash-only, at the Campus Center Theatre, which is open every day from 8 a.m. to midnight.
