

Stockton University's Kramer Hall to Screen 'Evolution of a Criminal' on March 25

Explore the mind and self-reflection of a former bank robber

For Immediate Release

Monday, March 02, 2015

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Maryjane.Briant@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Galloway Township, NJ – Experience the mindset of a former bank robber during the screening and discussion of “Evolution of a Criminal” at Stockton University’s Kramer Hall instructional site in Hammonton on Wednesday, March 25.

Filmmaker Darius Clark Monroe explores his past as he examines the circumstances that led him to commit a bank robbery as a young man and how that propelled him toward a journey of reflection and forgiveness. The film is presented as a mix of documentary, true crime, and personal essay. A discussion panel will follow the screening of the film.

This free public event will be held at the instructional site from 4:30-6 p.m. at 30 Front St in downtown Hammonton.