a pre-Kwanzaa celebration in late November.

This year, there will be a guest speaker and the evening highlights will include entertainment featuring traditional African song and dance. A traditional Karamu feast will be served. The Kwo-One Dance, Drama and Drum Theatre will present a spectacular, entertaining and colorful array of Kwanzaa festivities. Kwo-One is now in its third decade of performing at the Stockton Kwanzaa event.

Cost is $ for the public and $ for groups of 10 or more. The Karamu feast is included in the admission price. For ticket information, please call Stockton's Performing Arts Center at (609) 652-9000.
