Galloway Township, NJ - Learn to crochet or improve your skills at an eight-week class offered by the Stockton Center on Successful Aging (SCOSA) beginning on Monday, Jan. 26 at the Manahawkin instructional site.

Instructor Lois Allen will help beginners learn how to read a pattern and correct mistakes, while offering specialized guidance to those who are more experienced. The SCOSA crochet classes will be held on Mondays, Jan. 26-March 16, from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. at 712 East Bay Ave., Manahawkin, NJ.

By the end of the session, students should be able to make something for themselves or a gift for someone special.

A $50 fee is payable to the instructor. Register by email: Gina.Maguire@stockton.edu or call 609-626-5590.
