Galloway Township, NJ -

series, this year co-sponsored with Congregation Beth Judah, kicks off in Ventnor, NJ on Friday, July 17, with a look at the

Dr. Chia-Lin Wu, Associate Professor of Mathematics, will speak about forming community partnerships with local elementary, middle, and high schools to provide professional development for mathematics teachers.

Schools involved include Greater Egg Harbor Regional, Ocean City, Mainland Regional, Egg Harbor Township, Southern Regional School District, the Marine Academy of Science and Technology and the Atlantic County Institute of Technology.

Dr. Wu has also runs an annual program which brings more than 60 students from 10 South Jersey high schools to Stockton to compete in exams that challenge the students and assess their current skill development, which helps bridge the gap between high school and college.

Dr. Wu has taught a wide range of Mathematics courses, Computer Science and Education courses. He specializes in mathematical analysis, probability and statistics, along with his interest in math education.

The public is invited to this free series of events, sponsored by Temple Emeth Shalom in Margate and being held this year at Congregation Beth Judah, 700 N Swarthmore Ave, Ventnor, NJ. The programs will begin at 7:30 p.m. during Friday evening Sabbath services in July and early August, and feature a question-and-answer session following the presentations.
