ARTS GARAGE, ATLANTIC CITY :

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ - The Noyes Arts Garage of Stockton University is proud to host its free monthly Second Friday event on Friday, Nov. 11 from 6 – 8 p.m. This reception celebrates the opening of three exhibitions: Noyes Signature Artist Members, Yujin Song, and the Stockton Students Art Club, and also includes a book signing by Daniel Doster -Mann, author of Abused Intimacy. Enjoy live music, light refreshments, and a wine tasting by the Iron Room.

Jude Harzer, Cleansing

Second Friday at the Arts Garage is a family-friendly free event. A craft project for all ages will be offered in the art workshop.

The annual Noyes Signature Artist Members Exhibition opens at the Arts Garage on Friday, Nov. 4 and runs through Jan. 8, 2017. Showcasing recent work by twenty-one outstanding artists from throughout New Jersey, it includes mixed-media, assemblage, painting, ceramics, furniture, and sculpture. Highlights include Jude Harzer's Cleansing, a provocative painting featuring children as observers and guardians of inter-generational mythologies. Amy Evans' In the Blue series of dream-like cyanotypes reflect upon the mythical quality of memories. Sheila Grabarsky's Fantasy Garden is an abstract painting filled with light and color and is featured in a newly released film, American Pastoral. Bette Blank's lively illustrative painting adds a bit of humorous storytelling to the exhibition.

Artists in the Noyes Signature exhibition: Geoffrey Agrons, Bette Blank, Amy Evans, Joanie Gagnon San Chirico, Sheila Grabarsky, Glen Guarino, Jude Harzer, Eileen Kennedy, Joyce Lawrence, Alice McEnerney-Cook, Lucretia McGuff-Silverman, Tony Migliaccio, Kristin Myers, Vincent Nardone, Laura Petrovich-Cheney, Isabella Pizzano, Lou Riccio, Miklos Sebek, Karen Starrett, Lou Storey, and Skeffington Thomas.

Daniel Doster -Mann, a charismatic author and motivational speaker , will be on hand to sign his book, Abused Intimacy, during the November 11 Second Friday event at the Arts Garage . Growing up in a family battling with addiction, he was bullied and abused as a child. Doster-Mann has a passion for encouraging and inspiring people from all walks of life to be heard, understood and healed.

Yujin Song is a painter from Jeju, South Korea. Currently an exchange student at Stockton University, she is visiting from Jeju National University. Her artwork, on view at the Arts Garage from Nov. 5 – 29, is a form of documentation, capturing the moment of a personal connection or a strong emotion. “I switched from painting people to depicting places, after realizing that portraits limit my ability to tell a story,” Song states.

The Stockton Art Club Exhibition, in the Osprey Gallery at the Arts Garage, is on view from Nov. 5 – 29 and includes the work of talented Stockton University students. This exciting annual exhibition is curated and installed by the students themselves.

About :

The Noyes Museum of Art was founded in Oceanville, NJ, in 1983 to collect, preserve, and exhibit American fine and folk art, with an emphasis on New Jersey artists and folk art forms. Today, the Noyes Museum’s exhibitions reflect the area’s cultural heritage, while also presenting significant artwork by regional and national artists working in a variety of media. The Noyes has expanded to include galleries in Hammonton, Atlantic City, and at Seaview Resort in Galloway. The Noyes Shop: Hammonton opened in 2008 and specializes in custom framing. The Noyes Gallery at Kramer Hall in Hammonton is the newest addition to the vibrant Arts District in Downtown Hammonton, and The Noyes Museum’s satellite exhibition spaces. It is located at 30 Front Street, Hammonton, NJ 08037. In February 2010, The Noyes Museum of Art formed a partnership with Stockton College (now Stockton University) to form The Noyes Museum of Art of Stockton University. Through a 2013 partnership with the CRDA, The Noyes Museum opened The Noyes Arts Garage of Stockton University, a unique multi-use arts and retail space at 2200 Fairmount Avenue in Atlantic City.
