Galloway Township, NJ - Stockton University will hold an Open House on Sunday, April 12, offering a taste of campus life with tours, informational forums with deans and faculty of Stockton's eight schools, a look at student housing and a chance to sample campus cuisine.

The public is invited to the event, which is especially designed to help accepted students making final decisions, high school juniors beginning the college search process and transfer students.

The Open House activities include:

- x REGISTRATION and refreshments in the Sports Center on the main Galloway campus from 9-9:30 a.m. Preregistration is also available at Stockton.edu/admissions
- x WELCOME SESSION in the Sports Center from 9:30–10 a.m., with members of the university community presenting their perspectives on the Stockton experience.

From 10:15 a.m. to 2 p.m., activities include:

- x FORUMS with deans and faculty held at each of Stockton's eight schools will provide information about programs, career opportunities, special facilities, accelerated programs, dual degree programs, internships, portfolio reviews and study abroad programs. Other forums include Freshman Admissions, Transfer Admissions and Graduate Admissions. Undeclared students will benefit from the "No Idea About a Major" forum.
- x INFORMATION FAIR in the Campus Center Event Room: Learn about life at Stockton

- x APARTMENT TOUR (Via shuttle or walking): showcases upperclassmen housing across Lake Fred.
- x TROLLEY TOUR departing from Campus Center main entrance. A scenic tour of campus sites including athletic fields, residential areas, hospital complex, child care center, and Campus Ministry Center.
- x CAMPUS TOURS (self-directed): Throughout the Open House program, Admissions Ambassadors will guide attendees to tour information points, highlighting important facts about each point.
