Galloway Township, NJ – “A Journey Down an American Music Highway” is a multi-media concert performed by award-winning singer/songwriter/guitarist, Ruth Wyand. She will cover 150 years of American Music from the Civil War to the present. This entertaining and educational concert will be held in the Campus Center Theatre on April 10.

The program begins at 5 p.m. Tickets are free but must be reserved by calling the Stockton Performing Arts Box Office at (609) 652-9000. The Box Office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 90 minutes before the performance. For group sales, call (609) 652-4786.

“Bluejazz” or “Jazzy Blues” are the names given to describe Ruth’s music. With one foot in the juke joints and one foot in the jazz clubs, Ruth draws on American roots music to frame her lyrics and demonstrate her strengths as a guitarist, songwriter and vocalist.

Ruth has toured throughout the United States, Great Britain, New Zealand, Kuwait, Bermuda and France, playing blues, jazz and folk clubs and festivals. She has won numerous awards for her songs and guitar playing.

For our patrons with special needs, the Stockton Performing Arts Center offers wheelchair accessible seating, large type programs, and listening assistive devices. Please identify any needs you may have when making a reservation.
