Hammonton, NJ- The Stockton Center on Successful Aging is sponsoring a yearlong series of craft workshops for older adults at Stockton's Kramer Hall.

Janet Frandsen, SCOSA Volunteer Art Instructor, Fiber Artist/Custom Designer and owner of Frandsen Fiber Art, will teach the summer and fall workshops at the instructional site, located at Kramer Hall in Hammonton.

Janet Frandsen has woven baskets with her mother, working with reed and oak. She has been exploring the areas of mixed media baskets, including handmade baskets adorned with ribbon and beads. She has been using wool, felt, and yarns to create baskets and small novelty gifts. Her work includes wool bead jewelry and woven twigs and wools to sculpt small bird's nests. As a Fiber Artist she enjoys the textures of needle felting, paper folding and embroidery. So comfortable in the art studio as a space of expression she creates heirloom pieces from memories of the past. "I
