Galloway, NJ - Stockton University's Visual Arts faculty announces an exhibition of their spring Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) graduates. These 11 students will be displaying their Senior Thesis artwork showcasing acquired skills, problem solving, and personal execution of theory and techniques learned in the course of their studies.

The exhibition will be on display from April 3-24. The opening reception to meet the artists will be held from 1 - 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 10 in the Stockton Art Gallery on the main Galloway campus. This event is free and open to the public.

The featured artists are all from New Jersey. Seven concentrated in visual communications, one in painting and three in photography. The visual communications artists are: Alyssa Byk of Little Egg Harbor, Miguel Jimenez of Vineland, Christina Luell of Waretown, Kiera Perry of Williamstown, Lisa Rickershauser of Medford, Daniel Russo of Toms River, and Daniella Tripodi of Williamstown. Majoring in painting is Rachel Garro of Marlton. Carly Accardi of Villas, Matthew Clayton of Hammonton, and Christina Kha majored in photography.

The Stockton University Art Gallery is in L-wing, adjacent to the Performing Arts Center. It is free and open to the public seven days per week from noon-7:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon-4:30 p.m. on Sunday.
