Galloway, NJ – Stockton University's Manahawkin Instructional Site will provide information to students thinking about transferring to the university on Thursday.

Deve Phillips, a Stockton Transfer Admissions representative, will assist students from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the site, 712 East Bay Ave., Manahawkin, NJ. An academic adviser, will also be on hand from 1 - 6 p.m. to advise current students about academic programs.

Prospective students should bring up-to-date college transcripts, which will provide an "instant decision" in most cases as to whether they are eligible to transfer to Stockton University.

Stockton is among the Top 15 public Regional Universities of the North, as ranked by News & World Report in its 2016 edition of "America's Best Colleges." It is a campus of distinguished faculty members on the 2,000-acre campus in Garden State, Hammonton, Woodbine and Atlantic City, as well as Manahawkin.

Stockton's Manahawkin site, near the Garden State Parkway and the beach, is a convenient location to begin or continue one's academic career. For general education courses
