Galloway Township, NJ - The Colonel Kenneth R. Stow Memorial Scholarship Golf Tournament invites area golfers to tee off in support of Stockton College's student veterans.

The tournament, sponsored by the Office of Veteran Affairs and Stockton's Student Veterans Organization, will be held at the Stockton Seaview Hotel and Golf Club on the Bay Course in Galloway on Friday, May 2, 2014 with a shotgun start at noon. All proceeds directly benefit scholarships for Stockton student veterans.

Colonel Kenneth R. Stow was instrumental in founding the administrative component of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey during its early years. In 1965, he established the Colonel Kenneth R. Stow Veterans Memorial Scholarship, which is awarded to returning U.S. military veterans attending Stockton.

Stockton was first named a military-friendly school in 2011 by G.I. Jobs Magazine, which ranked Stockton in the top 12 percent of military-friendly schools in the nation. Today Stockton is ranked 15th in the nation as a Best for Vets College by the Military Times. Gov. Chris Christie designated Stockton as the first state college to offer the first pilot program for VETeach, which provides a path for veterans to become educators.
