Galloway Township, NJ- Dr. James Yoh, longtime trustee and current chair of the Board of Trustees at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, has pledged $500,000 to the Stockton College Foundation to establish the Yoh Foundation Scholarship Fund.

"We are extremely pleased and gratified by Dr. Yoh's generosity," said College President Herman J. Saatkamp, Jr. "This gesture will help many students well into the future."

Dr. Yoh, of Medford, is president and CEO of Galaxy Technology, headquartered in Egg Harbor Twp. The firm specializes in information technology, aviation technology, navigation systems and training systems. Its clients include the United States Departments of Defense, the Federal Aviation Administration and the Department of Commerce.

An active supporter of the Stockton community, Dr. Yoh twice served as chair of the Stockton Scholarship Benefit Gala (2008 and 2010) and made donations of $25,000 and $50,000 to the galas.

Dr. Yoh has been a member of Stockton's Board of Trustees for more than a decade. He served on numerous committees including the Academic Affairs and Planning committees. In 2009 he was vice chair and in 2010 became chair of the Board.

Dr. Yoh is a board member of the AtlantiCare Medical Foundation and is in the forefront of fundraising efforts for the modernization of pediatric units and the creation of a trauma center. He is also lead sponsor for the Technical Youth Program, which provides summer jobs for high school students from disadvantaged families.

Dr. Yoh earned his bachelor's degree from Fu-Jen University and his doctoral degree in Nuclear Physics from the University of Notre Dame. Prior to starting Galaxy Scientific, he taught Physics at Ohio State University. The Yoh family resides in Medford, NJ.
