

Except where limited by individual graduate degree programs (e.g. Doctor of Physical Therapy, Master of Science in Occupational Therapy, and the Master of Science in Communication Disorders, Doctorate of Education in Organizational Leadership), a student who is interested in taking graduate credit-bearing courses, but who is not presently working toward a degree, may enroll as a non-matriculated student. Registration for classes is on a space-available basis. Note that graduate programs may require either undergraduate or other graduate courses as prerequisites.

For a graduate degree program, normally no more than nine (9) credits may be attempted in non-matriculated status though some programs (e.g. Master of Arts in Education, Master of Arts in Instructional Technology, and Master of Business Administration) may set lower limits. For graduate certificate or endorsement programs, normally no more than six (6) graduate credits may be attempted in non-matriculated status though some programs may set have completed at least two terms as a full-time student at Stockton; and have achieved a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 in all course work attempted at Stockton; and have no current incompletes.

Students meeting these criteria and wishing to take an academic overload must obtain a Request for Academic Overload from the Office of the Registrar. The completed form must be approved by the student's preceptor and the Director of the Center for Academic Advising or her/his designee.

*The Summer Term means the entire summer and includes Summer Sessions I through IV.

Full-time graduate students are those enrolled in a minimum of nine (9) credits during each of the fall and spring terms and six (6) credits during the summer term.
