

The Stockton OU Times

Stockton University hosted the second annual New Jersey Student Veterans Summit, titled “N.J. Student Veterans, Joining Forces for Success,” on Oct. 17 at Stockton Seaview Hotel & Golf Club. Representatives from 15 colleges attended.

This year’s conference featured New Jersey Assemblyman and U.S. Army Veteran Chris A. Brown; Assemblyman Vincent Mazzeo; Capt. Jillian Burque from the

- Stockton Hosts New Jersey Veterans Summit
- Announcement of Appointees to Space Management Committee
- Deborah Gussman and Sharon Musher Each Publish New Books
- University Relations & Marketing Welcomes Shilon Anderson
- School of Business Welcomes New Faculty Members to Stockton
- Stockton University Community Remembers Robert McKeon
- Construction Corner: Construction, Parking Changes on Dec. 21

Interim President Harvey Kesselman has appointed the following individuals to serve on the newly established Stockton Space Management Committee (SMC): co-chair Susan Davenport, interim provost and executive vice president, and co-associate professor of Criminal Justice; Lonnie Folks, director of Athletics; Thomasa Gonzalez, vice president for Student Affairs; Lisa Honaker, dean of the School of Arts & Humanities; Manish Madan, assistant professor of Criminal Justice; Julie Shockley, professional services specialist and CWA representative; Nick Sena, special assistant to the vice president

