Haines Retires as Men's Soccer Coach, Starts as Assistant AD

Stockton's Head Men's Soccer Coach Jeff Haines retired from coaching at the conclusion of the 2014 season after 17 years at the helm of the Osprey program. Haines transitions into an administrative role as an assistant athletic director at Stockton. He is one of the most successful Division III coaches in the sport, entering the 2014 season ranked 26th among active coaches and 35th all-time in winning percentage (.710) as well as 37th among active coaches in wins (257).

"I can't reiterate enough how difficult of a decision this was for me. It took me awhile to figure out if this was something that I wanted to do. I knew I wasn't going to be able to coach for 25 or 30 years because I put too much heart and emotion
