Please provide a summary of the project and your experience.

The Martin Luther King Day of Service at Fifteen Years is a three-year project. A Graduate Research Assistant support Dr. Elizabeth Erbaugh analyze the data collected from the past five years of assessment of the MLK Day of Service that occurs annually at Stockton University. This data was presented at the American Sociology Association conference in August, 2018. It was presented at a national conference attended by Erin O'Hanlon and Graduate Research Assistant Alexis Restorick Learning and Democratic Engagement Conference. Finally, it was presented in July, 2019 to the Stockton University Leadership Council.

The artifacts collected during the assessments and interviews will be showcased in the library gallery from November 1, 2019 to January 31, 2020 in celebration of MLK's Days 15 years of participation. There will be a reception in early November which will include the distribution of a monograph of essays and interpretations of the artifacts and experiences of Martin Luther King Day throughout the year. There will also be a collection of artifacts and interviews entered in the Stockton University archives after this exhibit. o utcomes.

Please describe the results of your project and compare them to your original expectations. Elaborate on how well your objectives were met and how they might have changed. Note any particular obstacles that may have prevented your achieving full satisfaction on desired outcomes.

The results of our project were and continue to be very successful into the next year. 2019 was celebrated as the 15th year of MLK Day at Stockton University, and the analyzed research was presented
