
STOCKTON UNIVERSITY
ANNUAL REPORT FOR
2020 INITIATIVES PROJECT

PROJECT LEADER

abroad' (aka study tour) that aligns with the National Model UN (NMUN) annual international conference each November or Winter Break with a credit-bearing experiences for students. -led program

Timeline for additional objectives: note: this project spanned two fiscal years, 13.1 (59 (m)-v3) 13.5 (o) 10.6 (s) 9.6

- o "Adopt" course and develop new title and course description for 'GSS 2635 The UN in a New Global Era' course, with permission from course 'owner' Reza Ghorashi, work with Mary Beth Sherrier and Claire Lopato to get these changes on bulletin/course catalog

- o Develop new course syllabus [\[see syllabus here\]](#)
- o Solicit student interest from a variety of schools/major through existing Model UN student club, Global Studies Minor students in Zappile's courses, Global Studies Minor email announcement, etc.
- x Spring 2016-
 - o Update student application from 2014 (the first international travel team) solicit student applications through campus wide email to student email lists [with permission from Joe Loefflad], conduct applicant interviews, select team of 8 students
- x Fall 2016-
 - o Teach GSS 2635: UN Experience Japan
 - o Travel with students to NMUN Japan in November 2016
Description of the conference NMUN•Japan will be held in Kobe. The conference will include visits to Hiroshima and some of the UNESCO World Heritage shrines and

- x Requested a new website to post achievements, solicit applications, and more: <https://stockton.edu/modelun/>. This new website was developed by Dan Gambert and student leaders will be in charge of updating content each year with training from Dan. It includes Model UN alumni stories, to be updated this fall.
- x GSS 2635 is now titled "UN Experience" and is required of all students applying to be a part of the International Travel Team; this course is also part of the regular course load for the faculty member teaching and traveling with the student team
- x Built a Blackboard section for students accepted on the team that includes various resources above and beyond the content of conference topics such as Sandra McGuire's presentation on study skill at Stockton in Spring 2017 and new

FINANCES: Based on your proposal, please outline below how the award has been spent.

	Amount	Notes/Comments
Beginning Budget Balance as of:	$ 20,000	This was split over two fiscal years with $12,000 spent after July 1, 2016. Students were also asked to contribute towards their airfare, so we worked with Carisa Calabrese in Bursar to process student payments.

Salary Expenditures